MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR OF INTELLIGENCE, U. S. AIR FORCE
Attn: Chief, Documents and Dissemination Branch
Air Intelligence Requirements Division

SUBJECT: Distribution of "Wringer" Reports.

1. In accordance with conversations between representatives of the Air Force and this Agency, the following temporary procedures are agreeable for the distribution of copies of "Wringer" reports until such time as the Air Force is able to reproduce these reports through their own facilities and is able to furnish this Agency with at least three copies (preferably the standard five copies) of each

- a. The Documents and Dissemination Branch will copy on ~~film~~ microfilm all "Wringer" reports as received and indicate for each reel:
  - (1) The number of frames exposed.
  - (2) The number of reports included.
  - (3) The exposure time.
  - (4) The START and STOP points.
- b. A CIA courier will pick up the unexposed reel or reels at about 1045 hours each workday at Major William Adams' desk.
- c. CIA will develop the film and return it with three microfilm copies for distribution to the Army, Navy, and State Department. It is understood that if one reel is involved, it will be returned with the copies within 24 hours; if more than one reel, 48 hours will be required or longer as the case may be.
- d. For reports previously received (backlog) which are to be recorded on microfilm, it is understood that each such reel will be appropriately marked and will be processed by the U. S. Air Force as time permits. Such reels of backlog material or copies will not be returned to the Department of the Air Force.
